

Question:
Reed sternberg cells are found in-
Answer Choices:
A. Hodgkin's disease
B. Sickle cell anaemia
C. Thalassemia
D. CML

Reasoning + Answer:

<think>
Reed-Sternberg cells are characteristic of Hodgkin's lymphoma, a type of lymphoid malignancy. These large, abnormal cells with a distinctive appearance are found in Hodgkin's lymphoma.
user
Reed sternberg cells are found in -
Answer Choices :
A . Hodgkin 's disease
B . Sickle cell ana emia
C . Thalassemia
D . CML

