

Question:

An 8-month-old boy is brought to the emergency room by his mother who notes that the child has not been passing stool regularly. Palpation and radiographic imaging of the umbilical region reveal the presence of fecal material in an abnormal out-pocketing of bowel. Which of the following is a common complication seen in this condition? Answer Choices: A. Enlarged rugal folds B. Dysplasia C. Ulceration D. Paneth cell metaplasia

Reasoning + Answer:

<think>considering the symptoms and signs of the patient</think><answer>ulceration</answer>

Reward score

0.010

0.005

0.000

-0.005